

Acas statement on the Kings Speech workplace proposals

17 July 2024

Acas Chief Executive, Susan Clews, said:

"Acas works with millions of employers and employees every year to improve workplace relationships and advise on best practice at work. We look forward to working with the Government on the workplace proposals announced in the King's Speech."

Media enquiries

Contact the Acas press office